Please also provide information on what proportion of toilets in these buildings are provided in the form where each toilet is in a separate room, lockable from the inside, with a wash-hand basin, intended for the use of one person at a time:

(a) in total and

(b) within each of these buildings separately: Victoria Quay, St Andrews House, Saughton House, Atlantic Quay (all locations), Marine Scotland Laboratories (Aberdeen)

(c) any other buildings for which the information is held centrally.

If toilets specifically designated as for disabled use are included, please state what the proportion figure would be if these were excluded.”
